Pensando en las cosa que quiero
Pensando en las cosa que debo
Pensando en las cosa que temo
Pensando en las cosa que siento

Ya verás
Las Cicatrices que quedaron
Ya no duelen son recuerdos del pasado
Pasarán
Esos tiempos de distancia
Que me duelen que me atrapan

Time hurts people
It's gonna to be alright
Wound heal
But scars remain
I go hard on the paint
It's hard to maintain a somewhat state of mind that's sane
Life got me on my knees
I struggle to get a hold on life and get back up on my feet
In absolute happiness and utopia I do not believe
Put a leash on it
Work with what I receive
I don't live in different realities
That's what they want me to believe
Won't be deceived
I believe in these beautiful scars like I believe in the leaves of life on t hese trees
