

Warrior

Outlandish

Do whatever you love and you'll be free
If you can't buy happiness, try to lease
Buy a better mirror stare a little longer now
One thousand reasons to cry out is that a lot
A thousand reasons to smile tell you why
Consolation to your tears
I'll light up your way

[Chorus]

For what is worth you're my warrior
And I'm your warrior

Do not be confused by the murderers
Goodness is bigger than us you can't see it cause
It is silent yeah but it's feeding this world
You are not depressed cause you fight out of love
Everything is a test maybe you're better off
What you call a problem I just call them lessons of love

[Chorus]

For what is worth you're my warrior
And I'm your warrior

Come on let's take a walk
Don't say a word, let's not talk
Let the silence do all the communicating tonight
Life's not just a walk in the park
I know that but it's a start right
They say silence is gold
But it's kinda hard when so much remains untold
You looking the other way and me kicking up dust
Blocking the sun still got shades on
Blocking our point of view, here we differ a lot
About what and what not's, what we ain't
And what we could've got
Thinking our arms ain't too short to box with God
This ain't midnight stroll in Paris
More like a careless walk through a field of land mines
I cherish you, though you're a warrior too
What are we to do

God never promised you days without pain
Laughter without sorrow, sun without rain
But he did promise strength for you everyday
Still in tears, Oh, how can I not be sad
For my guidance was, was upon your hands
Wrapped around I pray I'm praying you understand

[Chorus]

For what is worth you're my warrior
And I'm your warrior

[Bridge]

Si yo te quiero (Now that I love you?)
Porque te vas (Why are you leaving?)
Mi fusilero (My executioner)
Soy lo que veo (I'm what I see)

Soy lo que das (I'm what you give)
Tu prisionero (I'm your prisoner)
Lo que me diste (What you gave me)
Lo guardo adentro (I keep it inside)
Soy tu guerrero (I'm your warrior)

From my mother I learned never it's too late
That it's always possible to start out again
You may feel you've stopped but you're just on your way
You are not depressed, you're just unemployed
This is all we got, don't you kill it boy
Everybody's in love when things are going well

[Outro]
For what is worth you're my warrior
And I'm your warrior
You're my warrior
And I'm your warrior

You're my warrior
And I'm your warrior
