

Take A Look Inside

Over It

When did California get this cold?
Who can explain
Why in a golden state
So many hearts are disintegrating?
Hear them calling
Their anthem to asphalt
Freeway no way
We hate to live and live to hate

In a matter of time
It won't be worth the fight
You better hold on tight
On this white knuckle ride

On a silver platter served
Your latest disaster
Your always bent backwards
So today won't shape up to be your day

You were shared
All the gridlock in your way
Pawn your dignity
For apathy and enmity

In a matter of time it
Won't be worth the fight
You better hold on tight
On this white knuckle ride
We'll be cut down to size
Cut down to size
Now you decide
To take a look inside
Is it all in your mind?
Your mind

Cut down to size

In a matter of time it
Won't be worth the fight
You better hold on tight
On this white knuckle ride
We'll be cut down to size
Cut down to size
Now you decide
To take a look inside
Is it all in your mind?

Cut down to size
