Over October

All you need and more
Gadgets and gizmos galore
Tricks and trades they never fade
No keeping track of our score
Sunny walks on high street
Grab some milkshakes at Starr's
I go to bed I can't sleep
Daydreaming at night
These thoughts I can't fight but

You're everything I need no more, no less
Girl I know we've got so much in store
For us it's a beautiful mess
So let me take you by the hands
Just follow me and see

We together just you and me
The storms may rise, the skies may fall
But we, we've got each other
We're right where we need to be
It's not you, it's not me, we're we

Sun and stars she shames
Sweet melody in her name
A constellation masterpiece
She's my light in my night but
I get lost in her eyes oh

She's everything I need no more, no less
Girl I know we've got so much in store
For us it's a beautiful mess
So let me take you by the hands
Just follow me and see

We together just you and me
The storms may rise, the skies may fall
But we, we've got each other
We're right where we need to be
It's not you, it's not me, we're we
Yeah

One more feeling epiphanies revealing
The truth about my healing I'm free
One more moment the memories they're showing
The consciousness of knowing I'm free

One more feeling epiphanies revealing
The truth about my healing I'm free
One more moment the memories they're showing
The consciousness of knowing I'm free
Yeah yeah

We're right where we need to be
It's just you and just me
