

Listen

Over October

Feeling down again
Feels like you're empty

Making rounds with friends
Trying to find love

Oh can you hear me
Oh can you feel my heart bleed
Oh can you see me screaming silently

Listen, listen to my heart minus all the noise it's beating
Listen, hear me as I am oftentimes misunderstood meanings
The voices in my head deceive me
The voices in my head deceive me

Am I wrong again or was I ever right
This thing you called fate tell me was it worth the fight

Oh can you hear me
Oh can you feel my heart bleed
Oh can you see me screaming silently

Listen, listen to my heart minus all the noise it's beating
Listen, hear me as I am oftentimes misunderstood meanings
The voices in my head deceive me
The voices in my head deceive me

Listen, listen to my heart minus all the noise it's beating
Listen, hear me as I am often misunderstood meanings
The voices in my head deceive me
The voices in my head deceive me

Listen, listen to my heart minus all the noise it's beating
Listen, hear me as I am oftentimes misunderstood meanings
