

"Goodbye

Over the Rhine

help me tell the truth you see that's all i'm trying to do is t ell the truth i'm not that shy this is not goodbye and later on i won't know how i don't know who else to be more and more i'm secretly just me open your eyes

ell the truth it's just in my head all i've left unsaid and lat er on it won't come out i have seen the final curtain fall If i have to i'll surrender all

i'm always coming around too late too late it's not too late
