

Attention

Overcoats

Summer night. Hot dream.
I'm headed to your house like I always do
Think I caught a vibe laying sideways
Talking on your roof
I'm so tired of playing mind games, mind games
Can't you see it in my eyes, babe, eyes, babe?
All the things we don't say are building up
And I wanna make a move

'Cause for you I'm ready, baby
You got my attention
Oh, it's true, I've been waiting
Done with being patient
You got my, got my attention
You got my, you got my attention

What you waiting for? You know the ball is in your court
Now I've laid it out
Yeah, we've been doing this dance for quite a while now
You should be pulling me in and turning the lights down

'Cause for you I'm ready, baby
You got my attention
Oh, it's true, I've been waiting
Done with being patient
You got my, got my attention
You got my, you got my attention
You got my, got my attention
You got my, you got my attention

You know you've always wondered where we'd be Now we can finally see where this leads
So let's follow the mood, let's follow the feeling
We can stay up all night while everyone's sleeping

'Cause for you I'm ready, baby
You got my attention
Oh, it's true, I've been waiting
Done with being patient
You got my, got my attention ('Cause for you I'm ready, baby)
You got my attention (Attention)
You got my, got my attention (You got, I've been waiting)
You got my, you got my attention (Done with being patient)
