

Winner

Overcoats

You might think I'm a loser, baby, but you would be wrong
'Cause I found parts of myself that I thought were gone
I think you had to leave me for me to move on
I was never gonna end it

'Cause I've spent enough time without living
I had to walk alone across the line to know I'm winning
There's no bad blood running here between us
Thought that I'd be broken but I get back up

And every ending has a new beginning
There's always space out there for something different
I'm on my way to find it
Another round, another ride
Another chance to get it right
Another round, another ride
Just me, myself and I
You'll never know if you don't try

We both got scars, I know, we were always keeping score
You thought you won those battles, but there was never any war
You think that you know someone, then you don't know them anymore
You're back to strangers, there's nothing stranger

'Cause I've spent enough time without living
I had to walk alone across the line to know I'm winning
There's no bad blood running here between us
Thought that I'd be broken but I get back up

And every ending has a new beginning
There's always space out there for something different
I'm on my way to find it
Another round, another ride
Another chance to get it right
Another round, another ride
Just me, myself and I
You'll never know if you don't try
You'll never know if you don't try
You'll never know if you don't try

And every ending has a new beginning
There's always space out there for something different
I'm on my way to find it
Another round, another ride
Another chance to get it right
Another round, another ride
Just me, myself and I
You'll never know if you don't try
You'll never know if you don't try
