

Bat Shit Crazy

Overkill

Everybody out on the wing gone bat shit crazy
Everybody don't know a thing 'bout sense anymore
Conscious be your guide, life support and the truth is hazy
Everybody gone to hell
Say it's very hard to tell
Don't you know they wish you well, so die

Everyone bow to the morality king
Don't think aloud, hey it don't mean a thing
The people have spoke, those lips say we're lazy
Everybody goin', bat shit crazy

Someone hit the big red button and the shit went viral
And somebody pointed out that pig - nonconformist slob
Said we rise above but sure seemed like a downward spiral
I remember it like yesterday
Seems it's died or gone away
I've looked everywhere but now it's gone

Everyone bow to the morality king
Don't think aloud, hey it don't mean a thing
The people have spoke, those lips say we're lazy
Everybody goin'

I remember it like yesterday
Seems it's died and gone away
I've looked everywhere but now it's gone
It's gone

Everyone bow to the morality king
Don't think aloud, hey it don't mean a thing
The people have spoke, those lips say we're lazy
Everybody goin', bat shit crazy
