

Goin' Home

Overkill

Die, the endless death, the price upon your head
In the ranks of the walking dead
Fly up to the sun while searching for your soul
We thought we never would grow old

Wherever you go, wherever you been
Whenever you try, whenever you win
However you stand, however you fall
Wherever you land, take me to die with

There a thousand broken pieces from the pound
Lost the heart stays underground
There a thousand shattered pieces lay face down
To close the eyes, already blind, we're going home

Rise above the low, that hatred, end the deal
Rise above all that you feel
And know above all else, from day one if you dare
Know I always will be there

There, a thousand broken pieces from the pound
Lost, the heart stays underground
There, a thousand shattered pieces lay face down
To close the eyes, already blind, we're going home
We're going home
We're going home

Wherever you go, wherever you've been
Whatever you try, whatever you win
However you stand, however you fall
Wherever you land

The suffering
To choose the life
The suffering
To make it right
And all of the flashes that light up your night
The suffering
To choose the life
The suffering
To make it right

There, a thousand broken pieces from the pound
Lost, the heart stays underground
There, a thousand shattered pieces lay face down
To close the eyes, already blind, we're going home
We're going home
We're going home
