

Last Man Standing

Overkill

They're lining up in columns, they're lining up in pairs
They're lining up around the globe, they line up everywhere
Without reservation, without cause to care
Fuck the complication, last man standing
I heard the blowing siren, heard boots upon the ground
Heard the brave in unison, hear their engines pound
As God will be our witness, and evil is commanding
Fuck the abdication, last man standing

Last man standing, last to fall
Last man rise to take it all
Last define the best of what we do
Last man standing, last to fall
Last to rise and take it all
Last man in to tighten up the screw
Get in the mix and fight
Fight!

The fever turned to anger, the anger turned to hate
The hate became the reason, in the hands of fate
Without reservation, pause to dedicate
All our admiration, last man standing
Stronger by the dozen, stronger by score
Stronger by the thousands, with a cry of war
As god will be our witness and loyalty demanding
Fuck obliteration, last man standing

Last man standing, last to fall
Last to rise and take it all
Last define the best of what we do
Last man standing, last to fall
Last to rise and take it all
Last man in to tighten up the screw
Get in the mix and fight
Fight!

All of our footsteps have taken us here to the place that we all can call home
And all of our hearts sing together, in what we bring, all in a place we call home

Last man standing, last to fall
Last to rise and take it all
Last define the best of what we do
Last man standing, last to fall
Last to rise and take it all
Last man in to tighten up the screw
Get in the mix and...
Get in the mix and...
Get in the mix and fight!
Fight!
Fight!
Fight!
Fight!
