

Left Hand Man

Overkill

Seems they got a runaround
A runaround where they stand
All over, yeah, all over you
Think they got an underground
An underground where they plan
Right under, yeah, right under you
Think you get the left hand
Backhand slap, then you're going to do
Your living on the downside
God can't hear when I call
And God can't know, just when I fall
God can't see where I stand
So, God can't be my left hand man
All I have is hatred
When the fire fills my eye
Right under, yeah, right under me
And all I have is fate
When the numbers fill the sky
Right over, yeah, right over me
Think I'll use the left hand
Backhand slap, then you're going to do
Your living on the downside
God can't hear when I call
And God can't know, just when I fall
God can't see where I stand
So, God can't be my left hand, my left hand man
Am I spent, layed-out got no more to see
With a locked down, tight clamp all over me
No love, just like before, am I one more, no more
Have I crashed, crashed and burned?
Have I cashed in, not to return?
Have I taken, taken my last ride?
Do you feel what I feel inside?
Over, over and done
Well I found something that I can't outrun
Watching, waiting, open the door
Am I one more, no more
All over, yeah, all over
All over, yeah, all over me
Right under, yeah, right under
Right under, yeah, right under me
God can't hear when I call
And God can't know, just when I fall
God can't see where I stand
God can't hear when I call
And God can't know, just when I fall
