

Makes Me Feel Alive

Owen Riegling

Turn that record on
Some old Rollin' Stone
Let it bleed all damn night
Throw that window down
Let it all blow out
And leave it all behind

I'll be known for drinkin' with a rough and rowdy crowd
And I've been known my ol' guitar way too loud
When it all comes out the walls fall down
And lightin' strikes this little town
Everybody's hands are held high
It makes me feel alive

Slow your role young man
You got lightin' hands
And a band that likes to play
In every honky tonk
On every city block
Until sunup the next day

I'll be known for drinkin' with a rough and rowdy crowd
And I've been known my ol' guitar way too loud
When it all comes out the walls fall down
And lightin' strikes this little town
Everybody's hands are held high
It makes me feel alive

Turn that record on
Some old Haggard song

I'll be known for drinkin' with a rough and rowdy crowd
And I've been known this ol' guitar way too loud
When it all comes out the walls fall down
And lightin' strikes this little town
Everybody's hands are held high
It makes me feel, makes me feel a, makes me feel alive
