

Headphoned

Owen

I already read this room
I know how it ends
It's safe to assume
That I'm not impressed
Headphoned
All alone
No roads
Lead to Rome
I'm playing hide and seek
Nobody knows but me
And I was doing nothing
Long before you were even born
I'm still doing nothing
But I'm doing it better than I did before
I'm still playing hide and seek

Nobody knows but me
That I'm just a bunch of pillows
Under your sheets
A lover you can't keep
So here's to new sights
New tastes
New lines on my face
Headphoned
All alone
No roads
Lead to Rome
I keep playing hide and seek
Nobody knows you're the only one
That's ever even come close
To finding me
