

Tokyo

Owl Eyes

I flew to Tokyo
Just to be by your side
New city here we go
It should've made it right

But I'm a stranger
In your arms and in this place
What a fool to think that
Distance kept me sane

Tokyo

I can't even read the street signs
Harder to decipher your lines in
Tokyo
Tokyo

Not the love that id imagine
Sign in and see the magic in
Tokyo
Tokyo

Net flex and hotels rooms
Just need to pass the time
We sunk so out of tune
Just couldn't get it right

I'm a stranger
In your arms and it's ok
Wrote the city on my v straights
Gets me safe

Tokyo

I can't even read the street signs
Harder to decipher your lines in
Tokyo
Tokyo

Not the love that id imagine
Sign in and see the magic in
Tokyo
Tokyo

I left my heart in Tokyo
We left our love in a hotel
We danced the night in Tokyo
What else were we meant to do
When you love someone but the spark is gone
In a city brand new
I let you go in Tokyo
No reasons left to follow you

Tokyo

I can't even read the street signs

Harder to decipher your lines in
Tokyo
