Oz

Run away !

In your dreams you see the victims of another holocaust
And the people in the jet-plane, for disaster soon shall come
Waking up your heart is racing
What you saw will happen soon
You saw a ship sinking deeper
And the children sinking too

Somewhere
Who could you turn to
Somewhere
Would they believe you
Nightmare
No one to turn to
Nightmare
Soon it's too late

In the east the souls aspire
In the west an old one cries
You're the one who's seen the future
And you know the beast will rise
Sleeping don't come very easy
Dreaming all the things you do
Trying hard to say the warning
But they turn their backs on you

Somewhere
Who could you turn to
Somewhere
Would they believe you
Nightmare
No one to turn to
Nightmare
Now it's too late
