

Goodbye

Ozzy Osbourne

(One, two, three, four)
Do you have any memories? Hahaha

Dark memories, dark memories
They keep me up all night
You left me, half-empty
Why are you always right?
Can't change me, can't change me
No matter how you try
You break me, forsake me
Right now, I wanna die

So it's goodbye (Bye, bye)
So it's goodbye (Bye, bye)

No future, no-no-no future
Replace me, now I'm gone
Black dresses, black roses
The world keeps turning on
Cry for me, cry for me
It's what I really want
I'm leaving believing
My work down here is done

So it's goodbye (Bye, bye)
So it's goodbye (Bye, bye)

Sitting here in purgatory
Not afraid to burn in hell
All my friends are waiting for me
I can hear them crying out for help
Crying out for help

No reward for suicide
The pain of life can still be felt
Mother Mary, Jesus Christ
I wish you heard me crying out for help
Crying out for help

The crowd is still waiting
I took my final bow
It's over, so over
Too late to turn back now
I'm sorry, so sorry
I gave my life a try
Forgive me, forgive me
I didn't say goodbye

So it's goodbye (Bye, bye)
So it's goodbye (Bye, bye)

Sitting here in purgatory
Not afraid to burn in hell
All my friends are waiting for me
I can hear them crying out for help
Crying out for help
Crying out for help

Is it tea time yet?
Do they sell tea in Heaven?
