One More Time

Ozzy Osbourne

I just can't seem to get enough
When I'm running good, you know,
I don't slow down, even the times
When I know I should go slow

I know this won't ever be easy,
I don't give up, so won't you get me

Give me some more,
I need it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
I need it one more time

Give me some more,
I want it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
I want it one more time

You know I live for thunder,
This is where I'm meant to be,
And when I'm six feet under,
Will you (snow it up uh) me

Right here, right now, let's have a party,
We'll never stop, so won't you get me

Give me some more,
I need it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
I need it one more time

Give me some more,
I want it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
I want it one more time

I never wanted to be more than who I am,
I'm just a lucky son from an unlucky man,
You'd get me more than anything I ever had

Take away my faith,
Take away my name,
Give me one more, one more pain

Give me some more,
I need it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
I need it one more time

Give me some more,
I want it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
I want it one more time

Give me some more,
I need it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,

I need it one more time

Give me some more,
I want it right now, get it now,
Give me some more,
