

Always

P-Lo

Back and forth, tennis game that we playin' here
Yeah, don't go out no more, gotta stay in here
Yeah, it was all good just a week ago
Then you goin' through my phone and I didn't even know
You wasn't really trippin' when you had your clothes off

All we do is fight, then we make up
Think about the time that we take up
We could fuck all night, then we wake up
And do it again

Yeah, you think I changed
Well, that's nothin'
We're so on and off then I break you off
Just so we could be always
Always
And that's always
Always
And that's all

Even when I do it right, ain't no way to win
Yeah, another day, another fight
It ain't makin' sense
Yeah, sometimes I wanna "skrrt" off fast
Talk no shit, I done heard all that
Why can't I be right? Yeah, yeah
This shit gettin' tired, yeah, yeah

All we do is fight, then we make up
Think about the time that we take up
We could fuck all night, then we wake up
And do it again

Yeah, you think I changed
Well, that's nothin'
We're so on and off then I break you off
Just so we could be always
Always
And that's always
And that's always
And that's always
Always
Yeah
And that's all

Back and forth we keep goin', like it's table tennis
Trouble comin', knockin', that's Jehovah Witness
Your girlfriends always buzzin'
Tell 'em, mind they business
I don't know why you listen to them ho' bitches
Especially when you know
Soon as they leave your house
You gon' hit up my phone
No matter what we tell each other
We can't leave it alone
We gon' argue like we childish but fuck like we grown, ay
Keep it lit, stay 100

If you can't do that, don't do nothin'
Ay, and I might think about you on them long days
But you gon' think about me always

Yeah, you think I changed
Well, that's nothin'
We're so on and off then I break you off
Just so we could be always
Always
And that's always
Always
And that's all

Yeah, you think I changed
Well, that's nothin'
We're so on and off then I break you off
Just so we could be always
Always
And that's always
Always
And that's all
