Nah nah nah nah nah nah

Lately baby you've been on my mind
You just make it right
Don't be telling me you hung up on your ex
Cause shawty he a waste of time
How bout we just hele back to my city?
Damn you looking so pretty
Don't take much to go and convince me
If you wanted too
Know that Imma focus on you completely
Borderline obsessed really
I love how you ten percent clingy

I got a bad lil' shawty from the 808
She let me beat like the 808
How she throw it back, make me say okay
Love it how you do it, girl, you go so crazy
