

The End

P-Lo

You only call me when you're drunk, yeah
I only text you when I'm on
I just said that we're in love
You probably tell me that I'm wrong
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end

I'm in the building and I'm feeling myself
You was doing bad, I was willing to help
I said, stop it, baby, I'm popping, baby
Lifestyle drive you crazy
Know you really wanna go
Know you really wanna take it slow
Tell 'em pass the Henney, we don't do so go
Me and you together, we can do no wrong
Girl, it's your song

Ayy, I swear it's only you
Pulled up 'cause you told me to
'Cause I do it how you want me to, whoa

You only call me when you're drunk, yeah
I only text you when I'm on
I just said that we're in love
You probably tell me that I'm wrong
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end

I'm a West Coast bad boy, I'm representing
Call me 2AM to get in it
Said what I said and I mean it, love was ending
You the coldest in the backseat, windows tinted
That's how you lie when I'm inside
And you here, don't plan tonight
Took a while to make you mine
Know I come through every time

Ayy, I swear it's only you
Pulled up 'cause you told me to
'Cause I do it how you want me to, whoa

You only call me when you're drunk, yeah
I only text you when I'm on
I just said that we're in love
You probably tell me that I'm wrong
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end

But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end
But I know I always get you in the end

But I know I always get you in the end
