

As Disappointing As Your Mercy Is

P.M. Dawn

I don't mind, do whatever you wanna do, to me
I'm the most, horrible person you know, I agree
But I see You, running
Running into nothing with everywhere to go
Baby you hurt me
Everytime you tell me you love me

It's all so disappointing the way you show me mercy, mercy baby
It's all so disappointing, the way you show me mercy,
The way you show me mercy

Oh, you say babe, you never wanna see me again, I'm too weak
Save your breath, I can't say I'm sorry enough for me
So how can you trust me, how can you trust me with everything
How can you hold me, knowing I'll only hurt you again, oh, baby

It's all so disappointing the way you show me mercy, baby
It's all so disappointing, the way you show me mercy,
The way you show me mercy

Baby I see you, crying
Crying the way that people with broken hearts do
Baby you hurt me, every time you tell me that you love me

It's all so disappointing the way you show me mercy, baby
It's all so disappointing, the way you show me mercy, the way you show me
Oo, babe, oh baby,
It's all so disappointing the way you show me mercy, baby
It's all so disappointing the way you show me mercy.
