

Music For Carnivores

P.M. Dawn

You'll hear tales of all the great pretenders then it comes to you...

You'll spend hours practicing your smile
then it comes to you...

You'll be too deceived by "The peaceful life" but You'll spend all your worth trying to be an angel and then it comes to you

They don't feel the way you feel they don't know that they hurt you and when you forgive them for what they do you get nothing

You will dream
all there is to dream
then it comes to you...

And when you're overwhelmed by how apathetic we are you'll feel powerless as you crucify your patience
then it comes to you...

They don't feel the way you feel
and when you forgive them for what they do

you get nothing

And I'm not afraid
