

Babylon the Murderer

P.o.d.

Tell the world
Tell the whole world that you keep nothing back, hold nothing back
Raise a signal flag
Raise it to tell everyone that Babylon will fall.
Her images and idols will be broken and destroyed,
Will be broken and destroyed.
Yeah, ha ha

Babylon is a murderer
Crash down through your walls
BANG! lightning thunder
I pull the trigger and light you up
In a world so fake we 'come dangerous.
And Babylon is a murderer
Crash Smash down to the ground
BANG! lightning thunder
I'll pull my trigger and light you up
In a world unjust, I 'come dangerous.

And her gods will be shattered
Absolutely discredited
Perfectly dead and shamed.
For a nation will come down from the north
With such destruction, and desolation
And bring it all to an end
Such death and demolition
Such death and devastation
That no one will ever live there again.
Yeah, ha ha

Babylon is a murderer
Crash down through your walls
BANG! lightning thunder
I pull the trigger and light you up
In a world so fake we 'come dangerous.
And Babylon is a murderer
Crash down to the ground
(Bang!) Lightning thunder
I pull my trigger and light you up
In a world unjust, I come dangerous

Pull the trigger!

And then we sat down by the rivers of Babylon
And we wept, and we wept
And we remembered, and we remembered Zion.

Pull the trigger!

Babylon is a murderer
Crash down to the ground
(Bang!) Lightning thunder
(Pull the trigger!)

I pull my trigger and light you up
In a world unjust, I come dangerous
(Pull the trigger!)

And Babylon is a murderer
Crash down tho the ground
(Bang!) Lightning thunder
(Pull the trigger!)
I pull my trigger and light you up
In a world unjust, I come dangerous
(Pull the trigger!)
