

DEAD RIGHT

P.o.d.

I understand we're a bit misunderstood so I'll
Do what you say but I won't do as you do
Come on

Dead right
Dellusioned by your foolish pride
Intoxicated with self, leaving you blind, I'm
Dead right
K-k-killing everything on sight
A massacre with these words just like I said, right?

Why are you, why are you so dead?
Why are you, why are you so dead right?

Eye for an eye leaves the whole world blind
Eye for an eye
Everybody's dead right!

Dead right
It's your room and it's the only view
Just 'cause you're speaking your truth don't really make it true
We're dead right but what really makes us qualified?
I hear you talking, but I want to hear you tell me why

Why are you, why are you so dead?
Why are you, why are you so dead right?

Eye for an eye leaves the whole world blind
Eye for an eye
Everybody's dead right!

And open your eyes and your heart
Shut your mouth and listen
I know you've got, you've got it all figured out
And take my advice and accept who you are
Find your way
It's time, let go
Don't wait, don't wait another day

Dead right
Dead right
Dead right
Why are you, why are you so dead?
Why are you, why are you so dead right?
