Thinkin that I won't up on dread hahaha, Rasta Ooo-ahh Hey, ah-haha Hey Ooo-ahh Hey, ah-haha Hey

Lift my head up this morning
Before i awake gotta give Jah Jah praises first thing
No other god come before me
So wicked Babylon, me go sing up
Chant them down Babylon
Me go stand up hold thy ground against them wicked plans
Speak up,
Testify against them Babylon system
Give thanks and praise

No matter where i go, no matter what they say Jah Jah gonna be there for me

No matter where i go, no matter where i play Jah Jah gonna be there for you

For you For you

Jah Jah gonna be there for you

For you, For you

and Jah Jah gonna be there

So why you wanna wait so long?
Shining so bright, and natty dready don't wait
Why you wanna wait so long?
So long, so long, my little baby don't wait
Why you wanna wait so long?
For you, For you, my little sister don't wait
Why you wanna wait so long?

For his majesties love You got to know, ah-haha For his majesties patients and love ah-haha, you got to serve the King

What a lovely little feeling no matter where i go, in the streets them ah show me lovin cause in the south we are bubblin
Give me more of that Diego raw sound, sound
It's your boys comin' out of southtown, town and you know we have to break it on down, down
Testify against them Babylon system

No matter where I go, no matter what they say Jah Jah gonna be there for me

No matter where I go, no matter where i play Jah Jah gonna be there for you

So long, So long

Jah Jah gonna be there for you

For you, For you

and Jah Jah gonna be there

So why you wanna wait so long? and natty dready don't wait Why you wanna wait so long?

So long, so long, my little baby don't wait Why you wanna wait so long?
So long, so long, my little sister don't wait Why you wanna wait so long?

For his majesties love Open your hearts and let Jah come in and i will know that he will wipe away our sin

So why you wanna wait so long?
and natty dready don't wait
Why you wanna wait so long?
I pray now, my little baby don't wait
Why you wanna wait so long?
I pray now, my little sister don't wait
Why you wanna wait so long?
I pray now for his majesties love
