

You Know / It's You

P. Reign

You know, you know, you know you got it like that [x2]
But you be acting so rude
And I be acting so cool
But you know, you know, you know you got it like that

Like every time that sun shines baby
Don't I be on your mind baby?
If you searching, you a find (fine) baby
Just gotta open up your eyes baby
Even on my darkest day I know she never shady
Yeah, she let me taste I say it's all gravy
That body slim, you must be related to Baby
Can't seem to find my way up, that pussy amaze me
No make-up needed
Young Halle in the making
The closest thing to perfection has been seeing you naked (ooh)
Winning like I got a pair of aces
That booty keep me drooling like I got a pair of braces
She fuck me like I'm famous
Told her one day I'mma make it
She said "I'm still gon' be here even when the fame has faded"
Uh, and she my lady so I keep her in the latest
And just because I'm proud to say I love her, they gon' hate us
I'm gone

I've been around the block enough to know when to stop and stare
Window shopped enough to know when to cop, that's rare
I never share, fuck them, he never care
I got her under my spell when I'm under her underwear
Said she never had a G
I bought a ring and told her "freeze"
The woman of my dreams, cause she deadly on her knees
I know that you're the one just cause you're all I ever need
And I love to see you come, but I hate to see you leave
You know the type of girl that make the guilty copper plea
Ask around I'm hard to beat
Drop my stick and part the sea
Biggest players cop a ring and drop a knee
Stop and see
I'm on top of the world when you on top of me
Balcony
Mine is yours and yours is mine
And I'm too real across the line
Plus the bank is big enough to buy you anything but time
I was blind 'til I found the definition of a dime
It's funny how we met when I was waiting on a sign
Thank God
