Little did they know manna king greatness
I come from warriors, I know my past, class
The power of the tribal heart
They wanna take di energy, believe I'm blind

I got grind in my mind, I had it harder
Lower, minority, they can't defeat me, yeah
All I know is labour, I can't lack work
I'm another lost soul in the Wild West world

Realise you're my brudda, fuck a skin tone
Coming from the heart, bro, listen to the Black tone

Mom told me, "Son, be careful"
I asked her why
She said they fear my royalty, huh?
It's a Wild West world out here
They fear the power, fear the source
They can never take the spirit of our kingship
