Surrounded

Paatos

I've walked for days on end
To reach a place that I can call my own

I think I've lost my way

All I see is strange to me
Unfamiliar faces in the mist

Is this the right way home?
Don't think I know this street

Such a lonely way to walk
With no one here to catch you
If you fall
On your face
In the dark

Surrounded by the wolves
Surrounded by the wolves
Surrounded by the wolves
Why did you leave me here?

At last I thought I found the door

Belonging to a place where I once lived

Somehow I've lost my keys
I looked around but what I found
Was emptiness and echoes from my mind

There must be something wrong
I yell but no one hears

Such a lonely way to walk
With no one here to catch you if you fall
On your face in the dark

Surrounded by the wolves
Surrounded by the wolves
Surrounded by the wolves
Surrounded by the wolves
