

Part Of The Game

Pablo Cruise

You turn around and you walk away
You know there ain't nothing more to say you've played the game like nobody else
But now you're playing against yourself
'Cause the next time you hear that phone ring
Anticipating the love it will bring
When all along you know
It's iust gonna break Your heart

Baby give it up
(It's such a shame girl)
Don't you know when you've had enough (Just part of the game girl)
Remembeꝛ the game can turn around (Ain't no one to blame girl)
When you're down,
When you've had enough
(Just part of the game)
You know it's just part of the game

you'll never give him your heart again you can't go back now and start again
The love you deal is called solitaire
When you're losing cards that were never there
And all the times you opened up with your love
No matter what you gave it wasn't enough
And all along you knew
It's just gonna fall apart

Baby give it up
Don't you know when you've had ꝑenough
Remember the game can turn around Whꝑen you're down,
When you've had enough
Baby don't give in
You can win,
You can have theꝑ love
Baby you can take the deal,
Make it real
You can have theꝑ love
You know it's just part of the game
