

Drunker Than You

Paddy and the Rats

Just go and fuck yourself my friend
I'm crapulous, don't talk to me, I'll fight
I drank a lot, I hate my whiskey
But yours I like
If you want me, you find me
Right here at the bar
Just wait until I have finished this jar

Hypocrites and conformists
I hate you all you bore me to death
I'll always be an anarchist
I'm shittin in my nest
If you want me, you find me
In your bed with your wife
I tell you man her ass is pretty alright

Don't put my hands up
That's not my attitude
I'm not gonna think now
I will just do, do, do...
My mind is messed up
I can't follow the rules
Tonight I'm gonna drink
Until I'm drunker than you

Just go and fuck yourself my friend
I'm crapulous, don't talk to me, I'll fight
I drank a lot, I hate my whiskey
But yours I like
If you want me you find me
Just wait until I have finished this jar

You're always fuckin' arrogant
You're judging me, you're better than the mass
But I think you're only too afraid
You're fuckin' middle-classed
You're not the crazy as I am
So you don't like me
I keep me out you're mediocrity

I don't regret anything
Because at the time
It was what I wanted
It was not thought a crime
If you want me, you find me
Right at the bar
Just wait until I have finished this jar
