

Ship Will Sail

Paddy and the Rats

In the light of the setting sun
Wonder, all I've left's my loyal gun
And a bottle of rum
It's death where I belong

You took my faith as took her life
In my arms my only love bled out
You stole my delight
It will be my last fight

From darkness I descend
Revenge is all I know
Cerberus, I'll send for you to
Deal your deathblow
I'll drink your blood, my friend
God's dead long ago
Forget your prayers
It won't save you no more

Through the stormy night
Our ship will sail
Like a raging, rabid hound
I smell your trail
To the end of the world I'll ride
For you, no place to hide
Till I hunt you down
Our ship will sail

The chains of the seven seas
Will be broken in a rain of tears
And you'll be buried
At the bottom of the deep

The Beast is hungry for vengeance
You can see him in your dream of trance
Going to Underland
Cursed to the bitter end

From darkness I descend
Revenge is all I know
Cerberus, I'll send for you to
Deal your deathblow
I'll drink your blood, my friend
God's dead long ago
Forget your prayers
It won't save you no more

Through the stormy night
Our ship will sail
Like a raging, rabid hound
I smell your trail
To the end of the world I'll ride
Till I hunt you down
Our ship will sail

Through the stormy night

Our ship will sail
I smell your trail
Till I hunt you down
Our ship will sail

Through the stormy night
Our ship will sail
I smell your trail
Till I hunt you down
Our ship will sail

Our ship will sail
