

Standing in the Storm

Paddy and the Rats

Are you already there
Where you had to fly?
Could I still see your grey
Spaceship in the sky?
Many questions
Left without answers
If I could just say goodbye

Are you alone or there's someone to care
To cover you when you're cold
Since I couldn't reach there?
Keep forever the time we spent together
It's too much pain my heart should bear

You haunt these halls
Like a tumbling, stumbling ghost
Can't settle in these walls
Oh Oh
Like a tumbling, stumbling ghost
Can't settle in these walls

Abandoned freeze in the spring
Standing in the storm
While you fly on the wings
Of the breeze in the cold
Like flakes in the wind
Looking for a new home
Your tumbling, stumbling ghost
Can't settle in these walls

Are you already there
Where you had to fly?
Could I still see your white trace in the sky?
Our emotions
Remained unspoken
Wish I could just say goodbye

You haunt these halls
Like a tumbling, stumbling ghost
Can't settle in these walls
Oh Oh
Like a tumbling, stumbling ghost
Can't settle in these walls

Abandoned freeze in the spring
Standing in the storm
While you fly on the wings
Of the breeze in the cold
Like flakes in the wind
Looking for a new home
Your tumbling, stumbling ghost

You haunt these halls
Oh Oh

Like a tumbling, stumbling ghost

Abandoned freeze in the spring

Freeze in the spring
While you fly on the wings
Your tumbling, stumbling ghost

Freeze in the spring
Standing in the storm
While you fly on the wings
