

You'll Get By

Paddy Casey

I'm glad to meet you
I'm sorry to hear that your love shot through
But you'll get by, you always do
You'll find someone who will wait with you

I'm glad that you came my way
Though you were only passing another day
And it's no crime, just passing time
Waiting for some big bad man to come back for you

Maybe you're an angel with enough room in your heart for everyo ne
Maybe you are only a fire for the lonely sun
Maybe you're an angel with enough room in your heart for everyo ne
Maybe you are only a fire for the lonely sun

You'll get by, you always do
You'll find someone who will wait with you

I'm glad to meet you
Precious and the sweet you
You don't give up and you don't know how
There is no regrets in your here and now

Maybe you're an angel with enough room in your heart for everyo ne
Maybe you are only a fire for the lonely sun Yeah, maybe you're an angel with enough room in your heart for everyone
Maybe you are only a fire for the lonely sun

And you'll get by, you always do
You'll find someone who will wait with you

Maybe you're an angel with enough room in your heart for everyo
ne
Maybe you're an angel with enough room in your heart for ever yone
Maybe you are only a fire for some cold and lonely sun
