

This Is for the Girls

Pages

This is for the girls with broken love affairs
This is for the hungry lovers everywhere
When you get that feeling calling you back home
Wait it out, you may find you're not alone

Quit looking over your shoulder
'Cause it doesn't matter where you've been
Are we the last of the lovers?
Didn't we used to be good friends?

This is for the girls (This is for the girls)
This is for the girls (This is for the girls)

This is for the ladies who swear they're wearing white
This is for the hours of bliss they've missed so many nights
If you won't unleash your mad desires to me
You can't expect to make romance, can't you see?

Quit looking over your shoulder
'Cause it doesn't matter where you've been
Are we the last of the lovers?
Didn't we used to be good friends? (Such good friends)
