

Actions

Paige Lewis

You can run but you can't hide,
Coz actions speak louder than words,
And I'm here to break hearts and sink ships,
Friends forever means friends stick together,
But stabbing backs is a must when it's for lust.

With the lights out
Lights out

So listen up so listen up
This is one for the drive home,
When he's in your car [and I'm at home]
Girls with pretty faces have dirty secrets
And knowones gonna know about it,
Knowbodys gonna know

You can run but you can't hide,
Actions speak louder than words,
And I'm here to break hearts and sink ships,
I guess I'm giving up,
I'm never good enough,
I've wasted time on you,
I guess I'm giving up,
I'm never good enough,
I've wasted time on you

So listen up so listen up
This is one for the drive home,
When he's in your car

For every drunken kiss,
That landed on his lips,
You know I can't take it,
No knowone can change this
For every drunken kiss
That landed on his lips,
No knowone can change this
No knowone

Tell me,
He's all that you want,
And I'll leave it at that,
No more questions just promise me,
You'll tell me, please tell me,
He's all that you want,
He's all that you've got

Take everything I'll let you win
