

Actin' Up

Pain Of Truth

I'm on a mission from God
Tell him you failed

Think you're clever, pullin' up when no one's around
You know what it is, we're out there holdin' it down
It wasn't long ago you had tears in your eyes
Asking, begging if I can go outside
To save your friends because they always act up
Now you're here acting like you're tough
Couldn't apologize like a man
You shoulda gave up when you had your chance

Slick motherfucker, now you'll feel the same pain
Two hundred stab wounds to your back
Yeah, you'll remember my name
Too big of a bite
Bit more than you can chew
Stop coming around
With your wannabe crew

You're out of line

You're out of line, always actin' up
There ain't no fair one, figured that was what the fuck you want
You shoulda gave up when you had the chance
Now you ain't that tough, you wanna start again

But there ain't no startin' over this time, you fucking piece of shit
Bring that shit back right now

Slick motherfucker, now you'll feel the same pain
Two hundred stab wounds to your back
You'll remember our name
Too big of a bite
Bit more than you can chew
Stop coming around
With your wannabe crew

Bring that shit back again
Go
Fuck you
