

You And Me

Pain Of Truth

Alright, Freddy, let's show 'em who's still running shit in New York
You and me
Plus
Madball 2023, still holding it down
Hardcore still mint
From the old school to the new
Let's go

You and me, we ain't one and the same
That's why you are where you are
That's why I am where I am
I could walk around with my head held high
While you're hiding 'round the corner acting like you don't know why
It ain't as fun as you thought
You had your time, it comes and goes and now you're all caught up
Used to dodging bullets but we won't let up
I got a feeling
That it won't take much
So quick to jump the fence and now you can't pretend
This ain't the game that you think it is
Ain't no win or lose
Your fate is sealed

You wanna play a game, the ball's in your court
Ain't no keeping score, it's kill or be killed

It's kill or be killed

I know your kind, the ones that turn their back
To climb a ladder imagined, it's in your head
You struck a nerve that doesn't have an end
This ain't the game you think it is
It's kill or be killed

You struck a nerve that doesn't have an end
This ain't the game you think it is
It's kill or be killed

Dodging bullets but you know we won't let up
I got a feeling that it will not take that much
So quick to jump the fence but now you can't pretend
This ain't a game
It's kill or be killed

We're from New York, we don't give a shit, you know?
