

Crawling Thru Bitterness

Pain

I've been driving down
The dark and strange highways
And I've lived it all it's all a part of my life
I sold my soul to the devil
A desperate man in desperate times

Too blind to see
Living on the lies that feeds me illusions

I keep falling
Falling into selfish bliss crashing down
I am crawling
Crawling through remains of bitterness

We all been goin' through hell
It doesn't matter who you are
You come out a stronger man
You used to see the world in gray
Burn on and cold in bed
Now you're too old to give a damn

Too blind to see
Living on the lies that feeds me illusions
Pretend to live kills my enemies

I keep falling
Falling into selfish bliss crashing down
I am crawling
Crawling through remains of bitterness

Unseen is there anybody out there no
Unheard can you hear me screaming

I keep falling
Falling into selfish bliss crashing down
I am crawling
Crawling through remains of bitterness
I am falling I am crawling
