Bones

Palace

Shame
To break from routine that we know
Subtract all the days that we glow
It's hard in the shade of my home
Walls that you painted, my tomb
Skin to my skin we found God
But not in the face of the Lord
The Lord

Feel it in my bones
Caress the life through my veins
I would cradle hellfire for the love I require
Found the key to these chains

Brave
To take on the cards you've been dealt
Breathe life into your mother's health
Collecting the ink for your pen
From blood that's been spilt yet again
Thought I'd found my last future one
But found it in ashes of the sun
The sun

Feel it in my bones
Caress the life through my veins
I would cradle hellfire for the love I require
Found the key to these chains
I feel it in my bones
Caress the life through my veins
I would cradle hellfire for the love I require
Found the key to these chains

Feel it in my bones
Caress the life through my veins
I would cradle hellfire for the love I require
Found the key to these chains
I feel you in my bones
Flood the life through my veins
I would cradle hellfire for the love I require
Found the key to these chains
