

I'll Be Fine

Palace

I've seen your face underneath my dreams
I've held the hands swept it all away
I've touched your bags tears filled riverbeds
Blood turns the dust again will I feel the debts

Cause I'll be fine
Under my mind
Sorry that I'm inconsistency
Remember it's always you and me
You and me
You and me
You and me
You and me

Faces the ghost, picks the brain apart
Undoes the weave, the tapestry's my heart
Complicated kid, I knew I would be
For when I had courage and youth inside of me

I wouldn't change anything
The story that we've had
Galvanized house there's something else so sad
You are the one that I had my life for Patient affection, couldn't thank you more

Cause I'll be fine
Under my mind
Sorry that it seemed consistency
Remember that it's always you and me
Cause I'll be fine
Under my mind
Sorry that it seemed consistency
Remember it's always you and me

Cause I'm crazy, crazy for you
You drowned options just for love's truth
I'm a tricky man, but I'm getting bad at this
You're my everything in every way

Cause I'll be fine
You're giving me lies
Sorry that I'm inconsistency
Remember it's always you and me
