Balnahard
The seas may blow
Water cold
My rebels they know

I'll meet you there
Under broken light
The devil may care
But don't wrong my right

I need my calm now
Before it rains down
No word of a lie
You're bleeding me dry

I need my calm now
Before it rains down
No word of a lie
You're bleeding me dry

Found my calm
In the woman I know
Sound the alarm
When my green eyes glow

Don't be scared
Of the dark I see
Silence shared
Your faith in me

I need my calm now
Before it rains down
No word of a lie
You're bleeding me dry

I need my calm now
Before it rains down
No word of a lie
You're bleeding me dry
