

Ocean Deep

Palace

Broken blue and mellow still
I'm wading through and lave my kill
Water cool and fathoms deep
Under waves where I may sleep
Ocean bed, piranha float by
Must be dead barracuda don't die, don't die
Waves, waves, waves never been still
Just like the calm before the storm, you've had your thrill

Lost at sea, remember none
Waging wars and battles on
Quality of life's to pain
Walk the plank that held in chain
Treasure bound and float forever
To reach the lands our next endeavor, endeavor
Waves, waves, waves never been still
Just like the calm before the storm, you've had your thrill
Waves, waves, waves never been still
Just like the calm before the storm, you've had your thrill

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh, ooh
