Slaving On

Palace

Have you grown up, now you've tasted the sun
Are you still jaded, are you wasting for fun?
You are a solider, with the future in your palm
We're getting older, and you've chipped away your calm

Slaving on
I never said you're mine
Slaving on
I'll never waste your time
Slaving on
I never said you're mine
Slaving on

I'm getting less from you than I have ever known
There's so much more to you than threads have ever sewn
If life is there to take, then clutch it with your hand
You've sabotaged yourself, your exodus was planned

Slaving on
I never said you're mine
Slaving on
I'll never waste your time
Slaving on
I never said you're mine
Slaving on
I'll never waste your time
Slaving on
I never said you're mine
Slaving on
Never waste your time
Slaving on
Never said you're mine
Slaving on
