

Cemeteries No. 02 (Dreams of Lieseil)

Palaye Royale

Running to a place where death is gone
Falling asleep on names of stone and I know
Follow the rabbit down the hole
Spinning eternal wheel of gold and I know, and I know
And darkness will only cover my soul
And dreams of lieseil are vogue

Stare at a stone with name unknown
The past of nature becomes so shown
Ridicule the past with things between
Heaven is close you've got to see, oh

Kick it once for your daddy and twice for your sister
God damn, God damn
You know you got to let go, let go
Cemetery love is all that you know
Once for your mother and twice for your brother
God damn, God damn
You know you got to let go, let go
Cemetery love is all that you know

Look to the boy that never gets old
As the tales of lieseil they unfold
Lead his parents to their own
Digging their graves to the souls and I know, and I know
And darkness will only cover my soul
And dreams of lieseil are vogue

Stare at a stone with name unknown
The past of nature becomes so shown
Ridicule the past with things between
Heaven is close you've got to see, oh

Kick it once for your daddy and twice for your sister
God damn, God damn
You know you got to let go, let go
Cemetery love is all that you know
Once for your mother and twice for your brother
God damn, God damn
You know you got to let go, let go
Cemetery love is all that you know

Come on get higher this time baby
Come on get high again
So come on get higher this time baby
With me, with me

Come on get higher this time baby
Come on get high again
So come on get higher this time baby
With me, with me
Come on get higher this time baby
Come on get high again
