

My Youth Generation

Palaye Royale

Elephant in a tiny room
Can you see it it
Can you feel it to
That hot air inside your head
Piper dancing on your bed

And I don't know how to be
Can someone please show me?

Here in my generation I got something to say
Let's not have conversations that just fade away
Here in my generation I got nothing to lose
I'm just a skinny white boy aching just trying to sing the blues

Well don't you stop
Oh don't you stop
Don't you stop
Oh don't you stop

Elephant in a tiny room
Can you see it it
Can you feel it to
That little voice inside your head
And Papa dancing on your bed

And I don't know how to be
Can someone please show me?

Here in my generation I got something to say
Let's not have conversations that just fade away
Here in my generation I got nothing to lose
I'm just a skinny white boy aching just trying to sing the blues

I keep coming at you
I keep, keep coming at you
And I keep coming at you now

I keep coming at you
I keep, keep coming at you
And I keep coming at you now

Saying yeah
Saying no oh
yeah yeah yeah yeah ya ya ya ya ya

Here in my generation I got something to say
Let's not have conversations that just fade away
Here in my generation I got nothing to lose
I'm just a skinny white boy aching just trying to sing the blues
