

Oblivion

Palaye Royale

I drift in space
No oxygen
I suffocate again
Slow motion now
Can't feel the ground
So wish me well my friend

I disconnect reality
Like static on a TV screen
Feels just like a fever dream
When nothing's what it seems to be

I ask God to save me
But She won't take me, no

I'm in between
The sky and sea
I'm floating in oblivion
I'm in between
Entrapped and free
I'm floating in oblivion
I'm in the middle of
The best and worst of me
Hurts to breathe
Can't believe I'm so lost
All I want is someone to find me
Bring me back from oblivion

Flashing lights
Like satellites
Won't help me find my way
Can't disappear
Just float in fear
Slow dance with tragedy

Feels like I'm invisible
Communication minimal
Go off like an atom bomb
So loud without sound at all

I ask God to save me
But She said, maybe, no

I'm in between
The sky and sea
I'm floating in oblivion
I'm in between
Entrapped and free
I'm floating in oblivion
I'm in the middle of
The best and worst of me
Hurts to breathe
Can't believe I'm so lost
All I want is someone to find me
Bring me back from oblivion

I'm in between

The sky and sea
I'm floating in oblivion
I'm in between
Entrapped and free
I'm floating in oblivion
I'm in the middle of
The best and worst of me
Hurts to breathe

I'm in between
The best and worst of me
Hurts to breathe
Can't believe I'm so lost

All I want is someone to find me
Bring me back from oblivion
Back from oblivion
