Alone

Pale Waves

Before you talk to me
I've heard a lot of things
You and your reputation
Everyone knows you're fake
'Cause all of your mistakes
You and your own delusion

Call me up call me up but I won't pick up
It's the furthest thing from love

Wish I could go back to the night when I met you
So I could tell you to go to hell
I'd rather spend my entire lifetime alone
Knew from the moment I saw you
You'd be an ultimate waste of time
I'd rather spend my entire lifetime alone

Starting to get to me
Hearing your fantasy
I feel your desperation
No matter how hard you try
Not gonna change my mind
Will somebody put me out of my misery now

You stay up you stay out just to find someone
You've already come undone

Wish I could go back to the night when I met you
So I could tell you to go to hell
I'd rather spend my entire lifetime alone
Knew from the moment I saw you
You'd be an ultimate waste of time
I'd rather spend my entire lifetime alone

What makes you think you could be all over me
Open your eyes it's easy to see
I never gave you that impression

Call me up call me up but I won't pick up
It's the furthest thing from love

Wish I could go back to the night when I met you
So I could tell you to go to hell
I'd rather spend my entire lifetime alone
Knew from the moment I saw you
You'd be an ultimate waste of time
I'd rather spend my entire lifetime alone
