

Easy

Pale Waves

Close your eyes
Act surprised
It took its time
I know it's not your birthday
Oh my God
I don't believe
How can it be
That you're alive at the same time as me

Why, why would I ever know a life without you?
I would fade into the blue

You keep the lights on for me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

You changed something inside me
I'm not who I used to be
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

Well, the truth is
That this world can be so sour
But you make it so sweet
I was tryna make myself so tough
You make me so weak

Why, why would I ever know a life without you?
I would fade into the blue

You keep the lights on for me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

You changed something inside me
I'm not who I used to be
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

Nothing's ever felt this right
I look at you and I feel alive
You save me every time

You keep the lights on for me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

You keep the lights on for me
You help me to believe
Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

You changed something inside me
I'm not who I used to be

Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy

Loving you, loving you is easy
Loving you, loving you is easy
