

I like to imagine
Me and her in the garden
As the flowers start to bloom
She's living in my mind
Not knowing what she'll find
But she stays and stays all night and day

I'm a little bit in over my head
Said I wouldn't let her, but instead

She's pulling me like gravity
Everywhere she goes
Am I in too deep or outta my reach?
Little does she know
She keeps pulling me, keeps pulling me like gravity

We go well together
But I couldn't let her
Know she's all I think about
You see, she loves Jesus
So that always stopped us
So I tried to pray but nothing changed

I'm a little bit in over my head
Said I wouldn't let her, but instead

She's pulling me like gravity
Everywhere she goes
Am I in too deep or outta my reach?
Little does she know
She keeps pulling me, keeps pulling me
Oh, the effect that she has on me
She's pulling me like gravity

I'll go anywhere she wants
I'll be anything anyone
Talking too much to Mary
Oh, and now she wants ordinary

She's pulling me like gravity
Everywhere she goes
Am I in too deep or outta my reach?
Little does she know
She keeps pulling me, keeps pulling me like gravity
